VOL. II. NO. 60.

CHICAGO, THURSDAY, JUNE 4, 1896.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

THE BROOKLYN HANDICAP.

The tenth Brooklyn Handicap is run to-day. The indications are for a fast track and a field of eight or nine—the latter number being carded. Hornpipe and Nanki-Pooh are the dangerous ones not considered yesterday. Hornpipe worked the distance and the Handicap course last Saturday in 2:11. Counter Tenor's prep was the distance in 2:15½, and a mile and an eighth in 2:02. The Brooklyn Handicap and its conditions is:

The Brooklyn Handicap of $10,000; for 3-year-olds and upward; $250 each, half forfeit, or $50 if declared; to the winner $8,000, to the second horse $1,500, and to the third $500; weights to be announced Feb. 1 and declarations to be made by Feb. 20; the winner of the Metropolitan handicap, if handicapped in the Brooklyn at 125 pounds or over, to carry three pounds extra; if under 125 pounds, five pounds extra. 1¼ miles.

Clifford was an 8 to 5 favorite in the future book when it closed. He will be a 6 to 5 or 7 to 5 favorite to-day with St Maxim second choice. There was no pooling on Brooklyn at Louisville last night. The form of the race is clear and points to Clifford, St Maxim, and Sir Walter as the horses who should contend at the finish.

Wales' Colt Wins the Derby.

The English Derby was run at Epsom Downs yesterday, and was won by the Prince of Wales' colt Persimmons with Baron Rothschild's St Frusquin second and Earwig third. Persimmons won by a head in 2:42. St Frusquin was an odds on favorite, and Persimmons next in the betting.

Duke & Wishard's chestnut mare, Helen Nichols, won the Epsom Town plate before the Derby.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

"Hops" Laudeman's Fonso colt, Ramiro, is at his work again, and is being pointed for the Buckeye Stakes to be run at Oakley, June 13. Among the others are Ben Brush, Prince Leif and the other Ramiro, Baldwin's son of Gano, a better colt than the Fonso fellow as a two-year-old.

Jockey Dan Hennessy has been awarded $300 damages against Starter Kit Chinn and his assistant, Charles Riley. Last fall Hennessy had the mount on a bad actor at St. Louis, and Riley became angered at the delay at the post, and lashed the jockey in a brutal manner. The case will be appealed.

Mr. Dwyer only owns the racing qualities of Cleophus and as the story goes paid $4,000 for that privilege. The list of victories of the speedy Linden—Linnette filly thus far is as follows: Debutante Stakes, at Louisville, worth $1,700 to the winner; victory over Suisin in match race, value $1,500, and the Sapphire Stakes, worth to the winner $2,000. If she should never face the starter again Mr. Dwyer is $1,200 ahead on her.

"I guess I will have to hold on to Prince Lief," said Byron McClelland. "No one wants him at my price. It is just as well, I am not particular about selling him. Yes, his next start will be in the Buckeye Stakes. If he shows well in that event I'll ship him to St. Louis to run in the Derby. If he doesn't, of course I'll not take him over. No, I'll not go East before September, and probably not at all."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

SEIGFRIED'S JUVENILE HANDICAP.

Lakeside's star racing piece of yesterday—the Juvenile Handicap—was presented in a dull atmospheric frame and fought out in a soft going. Siegfried and eleven others—the best at the track—contended for the purse, and the honest colt with the poetical name, beat Provident, Easter Eve and the others in fashion that confirms the suspicion of his being the best youngster at the Indiana tracks.

Sunny conformed his quality by scoring again in a jocose way. He and Hazelhatch were the only favorites to win. There was a big crowd out and betting was more than fair and not in public favor.

Before the Juvenile Handicap Leo Mayer bet John O'Neill $250 that Poole's filly would beat Brenock's. As Coulter's boy was riding Provident Tully took half the bet, and $150 more was added, Hothersall's instructions were to get off as near fourth as he could, never be in a worse position, and come at the finish. The boy obeyed orders and Coulter won his bet.

Easter Eve was made favorite, with Provident a well backed second choice, all the others being at long prices, 15 to 1 being laid against Ed. Brown's pair, and 8 to 1 against the Leamington Farm's two. The youngsters were well behaved at the post, and to a good start, Easter Eve showed in front, with Yours Truly, Devoir, Siegfried and Provident close up. At the half the favorite had a lead of a length with Siegfried second, the same distance in front of Provident, who was a head before Terrific. Around the turn, Easter Eve increased her lead and Siegfried drew away from Provident. As they swung into the stretch, Siegfried closed on Easter Eve and the filly only led by half a length when straightened out. At the eighth pole Murphy called on Siegfried, and the favorite was beaten, the black colt coming away and winning easily by three lengths. Fifty yards from home, little Hothersall brought up Provident, and got second place by a length and a half.

Off none to well in the mile race, Pete Clay took Sunny to the front around the first turn, getting the inside. At the quarter he had a good lead, which he increased all the way, there being at times ten lengths between him and Merry Monarch, who led the rest of the bunch. Sunny stayed in front to the end, and won galloping. Merry Monarch swerved badly across Freddie L. T. and Kirk at the finish, and though he finished second, was disqualified.

In the opening race Hazelhatch got up in the last few jumps and beat Joe Mancini out by a head. In the second race at three-quarters Excuse led all the way, and in a driving finish managed to stall off Inspector Hunt's rush and win by a head.

The Deuce made all the running in the fifth race, and won by a length from Jennie June. In the last race Cora Havill got a running start, and going to the front kept there, winning by a length and a half from Lollie Eastin.

Answers to Queries.

Constant Reader, Chicago: Rubberneck carried 58 pounds May 23, when Hothersall rode her. The good boy can ride at such weight.

CHICAGO, JUNE 4, 1886.

Tattersall's Sales Youngsters.

Mr. Morvin Harris of the Hurstbourne Stud, arrives from Kentucky today with his band of untied two-year-olds by George Kinney to be sold at Tattersall's Monday night. The yearlings to be sold will land today and tomorrow. Sunday is inspection day at the sales repository. The entire lot is a more than ordinary good one and the sale, being an experiment after the recent "reign of terror" which seem to have choked the life out of the best racing field in America, deserves the staunchest support.

A SPECIAL FORM SERVICE.

From and after June 1, Daily Racing Form Publishing Company will be ready to fill orders for a local form service of marvelous range. Its messengers will deliver to subscribers each evening a leather-bound volume of the charts of all races run the same afternoon, with indexed entries for the following day on each track—local and foreign. The charge for such service will be reasonable and quoted upon application.

Conditions: - Stakes will be trotted and paced under conditions as published when entries closed. Final payments on all stakes, except Horse Review Stake, are due and payable June 15. Horse Review Stake payment is due May 30, 1896. Money divided in all stakes and purses 50, 25, 15 and 10 per cent. Any horse distancing the field or any part thereof, in purse races, will be entitled to first money, and any other part of the purse that the distanced horse or horses might stand to win. In purse events no more moneys than starters. Old distance rules to govern, except where conditions in stakes provide otherwise. We are members of both the American and National Trotting Associations, and all races will be governed by their rules (as we may elect) with usual conditions. All purses for trotting and for mile heats, to harness, best three in five, unless otherwise specified. The association reserves the right to arrange the order of the programme, as may be necessary, or to declare off any or all races on account of bad weather, or other unavoidable causes, refunding entrance money. Horses, mares and geldings are eligible to all purses. Entrance in purses 5 per cent. and 5 per cent. additional from money winners, which will be deducted from the purse. Right reserved to declare off any of the above races that do not fill satisfactorily. Meeting continues from Saturday, June 27, to Saturday, July 4, both days inclusive. Horses will be called at 2 o'clock and started at 2:30 p.m. Address all communications and apply for entry blanks to R. L. ALLEN, Secretary, Joliet, Ill.
